August 2021 Newsletter

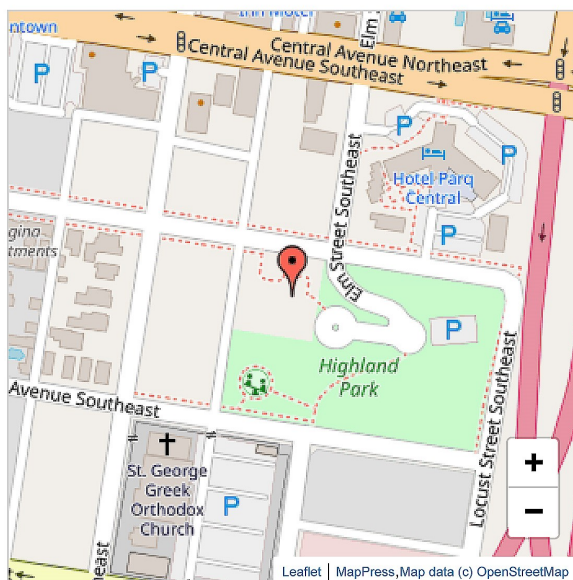

Rainbow Artists
Sunday, August 15, 5-7 pm
Albuquerque Press Club
201 Highland Park Circle

You may bring food but not drinks, even water. Beverages can be purchased at the bar.

If there is time, we will discuss paintings you bring, but there is a lot to go over including a permanent meeting space, planning for future exhibitions and local art venues. Bank balance is $3,209.50

Please continue to send us what you are creating so Janine can post it on our Facebook site and it makes it into the newsletter (emails below). You can also text photos to Janine at 505-200-1638.

The club is located in the historic Whittlesey House, designed by architect Charles Whittlesey and built as his family residence in 1903. It is a three-story frame structure designed after a Norwegian villa. The Albuquerque Press Club purchased the Whittlesey House in the seventies.

The Return of We Art The People

Submit for the collectible poster by August 27. The staff and board will review the submissions and the one chosen will receive $500 and artist credit on the printed piece and at the festival. The poster will be 18x24 printed, and sold as an OC fundraiser at the We Art The People Festival in September, online and in the gallery. Please email your one jpeg, along with your phone number, to mary.schmidt@offcenterarts.org It doesn't have to be print ready; they want your art!

ARTspiration

The New Mexico Committee of the National Museum of Women in the Arts has launched a blog to which you can subscribe here. Each month they spotlight women artists you either know or may want to know.

One painting was sold at the show at the Peace and Justice Center. Rainbow donated a framed poster of the Nobel Peace Prize winners as well as the 3-ring notebook of bios and bibliography. We also donated unframed posters for them to sell.

Eliza Schmid has ten egg tempera paintings at Ricochet Gallery, 1102 Mountain Rd. NW. It's a new gallery with nice receptions.

Marian Berg, Paula Stern and Janine Wilson have paintings in the Mother Earth online exhibit at the New Mexico Art League. The show runs from July 27-August 27. Hours are Tuesday-Saturday, 10-4.

Janine Wilson has a painting in Textures, Forms, Patterns and Shapes show at Las Laguna Gallery in Laguna Beach, CA until August 28.

Joan Fenicle had a great month at Wild Hearts Gallery in Placitas, selling all seven mixed-media pieces she displayed in July. Ranging from small to medium in size and including one diptych, the pieces were heavily textured on birch panel, inspired by nature and including found objects such as fossils.

Angela Storch, Janine Wilson and Carol Adamac are in the Placitas library exhibit "Yellow - Contradictions & Complexity" Reception, Friday, August 13th, from 5-7 pm at Placitas Library, 453 Hwy 165

Hilary Hyle is in the Questa Studio Tour north of Taos this coming weekend Aug. 14-15, 10-5 pm, with over 40 artists at 16 different sites. She will be at Art Questa, one of the first stops coming north from Taos; Check out the website at newmexicoartists.com. She also sold a large weaving earlier this year.
