

Call for Entry

Invitational Saints: Past, Present, Old, New, Well-Known, Unknown November 15, 2024 - January 12, 2025

Gallery St. Michael offers an opportunity for visual artists working in 2-dimensional media including fiber arts to share works that depict those holy people who have taught/are teaching us to marvel in all God's creation and works. This exhibit will be shown in the Pavilion of St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church.

Artists may submit up to 5 pieces. All pieces should be ready to display with appropriate wires and hangers. Canvases may be left unframed if the sides are finished (gallery wrap). Works need not be for sale.

Please email the number, names, medium, and sizes of works as well as jpeg images or photos of the works to gallery@stmichaelsabq.org by November 13. The jpeg images will be used for publicity purposes. Include 2-3 sentences describing why you chose your choice of subject(s); it will be posted beneath the label for your work. Also, please include a brief (3 - 5 sentence) bio. if you have not provided one for a previous show. We plan to compile them into an information sheet for visitors to Gallery St. Michael.

There is an entry fee of $15 per person plus a 25% commission for all sales, which helps support this ministry of St. Michael and All Angels Church.

Please bring your work to the Pavilion at St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church, 601 Montano Road NW, Albuquerque NM 87107 on Wednesday, November 13, 10:30 - 12:30.

The Gallery Reception will be Friday, December 6, 6:00 - 7:30 pm. A coffee hour reception will be scheduled in January.

This show will be open at intermission for the Musica Antigua de Albuquerque concerts on December 15 and December 22 at 4:30.

Pick up work on Wednesday, January 15, 10:30 - 12:30.

601 Montano Rd NW Albuquerque NM 87107, 505 345 8147