March Program: Rainbow's Beginnings
Facilitated by Janine Wilson
Sunday, March 17, 2-4 pm
OFFCenter Community Arts
808 Park Ave SE

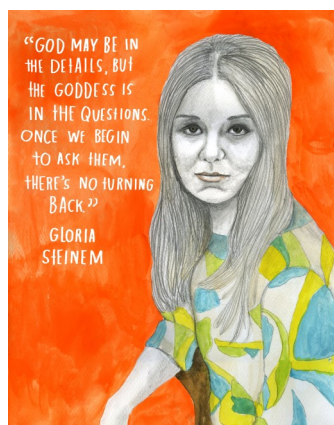

Rainbow is meeting this Sunday, March 17 from 2-4 pm at OFFCenter. It should be a good meeting as founders Judith Kidd and Lonnie Freedman will talk about the history of Rainbow. Janine will be bringing photos from the past.

Next year is our 30th anniversary so let's plan something good to celebrate!

Pick up Movement paintings and drop off Spring paintings at Keshet Dance.

March 30: Pick up at Unitarian Church, 8:30 am.

ARTportunities

Keshet Performances:

Keshet encourages you to come to a performance and be there to talk about your art during intermission. Rainbows get a 20% discount on tickets.

Rainbow Artists continue to show their art work at the Unitarian Church through the end of the month so if you wish stop by the Social Hall Sundays, March 17 or 24, between 9:30 and 12:30 pm to see it. The Social Hall will be closed for the remainder of the calendar year while renovations are underway.

New Mexico Art League Call for Entry

The Flower as Still Life
an exhibition of prints, drawings and paintings depicting the beloved subject of the flower
June 4-July 13, 2019—Entry Deadline April 27

Little Houses for this year's 2019 Little House Silent Auction Fundraiser for OFFCenter are ready for you to pick up at OFFCenter or Sumner & Dene and transform into your own work of art.

Percy and Maria Yu opened Art Gallery/studio 606 in February 2015, with the intention of "trying it out" for five years. Percy and Maria have made the decision to close the gallery ahead of the five-year milestone, primarily due to advancing age and associated health issues that are making it increasingly difficult to manage a business and run an art gallery. Also, they are making plans to move to Texas to be near other family members. So, I regret to inform you that the gallery will be closing after the end of the March 2019 show.

They are planning to have a closing reception and potluck on March 23rd to mark the end of the final show and closing of the gallery. Details to follow.
